France, 1425. In the midst of the Hundred Years' War, the young Jeannette, at the tender age of 8, looks after her sheep in the small village of Domremy. One day, she tells her friend Hauviette how she cannot bear to see the suffering caused by the English. Madame Gervaise, a nun, tries to reason with the young girl, but Jeannette is ready to take up arms for the salvation of souls and the liberation of France. Carried by her faith, she will become Joan of Arc.

- Features a musical score by renowned death metal artist Igorrr (Gautier Serre)
- Dance sequences staged by world acclaimed choreographer Philippe Découflé (Lyon Opera Ballet, the Cirque du Soleil)
- Theatrically released in most major markets
- Dumont is a two time winner of the Cannes Grand Prix Award
