"What shines through in the film is Turajlić's awe of her mum and a question: what made Srbijanka (what makes anyone) stand up and fight?"

-THE GUARDIAN

A locked door inside a Belgrade home has kept one family separated from their past for generations. An intimate conversation between the director and her mother, the dynamic activist and scholar Srbijanka Turajlić, reveals a house and a country haunted by history. What begins as the chronicle of a childhood home grows into an elegant portrait of a charismatic and brilliant woman in times of great political turmoil.
