

NEW FROM bullfrogfilms[®]

“THERE ARE SOME HILARIOUS, ONLY-IN-NEW YORK SPECIMENS ON DISPLAY.”

- The Hollywood Reporter

“FASCINATING!” - Nonprofit Quarterly

“An engaging and often humorous look at Brooklyn’s socialist supermarket.” - Planet in Focus

“EXHILARATING FROM THE FIRST TO THE LAST SHOT.” - Telerama

With a healthy dose of insight and wit, FOOD COOP takes an inside look at the Park Slope Food Coop, one of America’s most successful cooperative food supermarkets.

In Brooklyn NY, in the shadow of Wall Street, an institution that represents a less well-known American tradition is booming. The Park Slope Food Coop, a cooperative supermarket where all 16,000 members work 2.75 hours per month to earn the right to buy the best food in New York at incredibly low prices.

We see first-hand how the Park Slope Food Coop works, the rules that make it function, and the diversity and eccentricity of its members. Through FOOD COOP, you will see this institution come to life and witness how the enthusiasm that animates the collective demonstrates a potential for change, and how the coop’s mode of participation viscerally teaches democracy to those who take part.

FOOD COOP

A film by Tom Boothe • From Bullfrog Films • An Icarus Films Release
2016 • 97 min • Color • SDH Captioned
In English w/ French, Italian and Spanish subtitles • Not Rated
SRP: $24.98 • UPC # 1-94154-59632-5

• Bonus features include deleted scenes and extended interviews

PRE-BOOK 10/1/19 - STREET 11/15/19
HomeVideo.IcarusFilms.com • Tel: 1 (800) 876-1610 • Email: HomeVideo@IcarusFilms.com

EXCLUSIVELY DISTRIBUTED BY ICARUS Films
HOME VIDEO