

“POWERFUL AND DISTURBING.”

— INDIEWIRE

“Excellent and constantly enraging...
the ghosts of Attica are very much alive.”

—THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

“TOP OF THE LINE IN ITS EVERY DETAIL.”

—ENTERTAINMENT WEEKLY

“ABSOLUTELY CHILLING.”

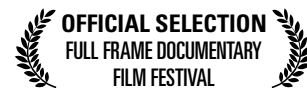

—THE NEW YORK DAILY NEWS

Attica. Like Watergate and Vietnam, it is an icon of recent history. Gov. Rockefeller’s brutal re-taking of the prison—a nine-minute, 1600-bullet assault that took the lives of 29 inmates and 10 guards held hostage—put an end to the four-day rebellion. But the struggles for justice, by both prisoners and guards, endured for three decades. Eventually inmates wrested a historic $12-million settlement from the state, and that bittersweet victory spurred a new round of agitation by guards and their survivors.

GHOSTS OF ATTICA offers a definitive account of America’s most violent prison rebellion, its suppression, and the days of torture that ensued—using exclusive, just-released images, documents, and interviews. More than just a history film, it also chronicles an unfolding contemporary story, as both inmates and guards—united by suffering, but divided by race, class, and culture—hurtle towards a final show-down with the state.

NARRATED BY SUSAN SARANDON

BONUS FEATURES: Includes archival footage and recordings

GHOSTS OF ATTICA • A film by Brad Lichtenstein • An Icarus Films Release
2001 • 90 min • Color • English • Not Rated • Closed Captioned
SRP: $29.98 / UPC: 8-54565-00288-3

PRE-BOOK 7/30/19 - STREET 9/3/19

HomeVideo.IcarusFilms.com • Tel: 1 (800) 876-1610 • Email: HomeVideo@IcarusFilms.com