A powerful affirmation of the immersive potential of cinema. HAPPY HOUR is a slow-burning epic chronicling the emotional journey of four thirtysomething women in the misty seaside city of Kobe. As they navigate the unsteady currents of work, domestic, and romantic lives, an unexpected rift opens between that propels each to a new, richer understanding of life and love.

“A monumental film (that) finds majesty in the mundane”

“Quietly beautiful... disarmingly moving.”

Manohla Dargis, New York Times

“Its length is entirely justified, indeed richly and deeply filled.”

Richard Brody, The New Yorker

“The most immensely absorbing and deeply satisfying cinematic experience.”

Christopher Bourne, ScreenAnarchy

- Hamaguchi's newest film ASAKO I & II competed for CANNES top prize and will open theatrically in 2019
- Winner Best Actress (shared by four leads) Locarno Film Festival
- Universal critical praise (100% Rotten Tomatoes)
