

INDONESIAN FEMINIST OUTLAW WESTERN!

“KICKS ASS!” “The OPPOSITE of macho!”

—Hollywood Reporter

—The Guardian

“A stark, steady, CAPTIVATING look.”

—New York Times

“A polemic passing as a FOLKTALE.”

—Georgia Straight

“Its exemplary direction and feminist theme are indeed likely to win Surya new fans.”

—RogerEbert.com

“UTTERLY BONKERS in the best possible way.”

—The London Times

In the deserted hills of an Indonesian island, Marlina (Marsha Timothy), a young widow, is attacked and robbed of all her livestock by a gang of seven bandits. She then defends herself, setting out on a journey to find justice, empowerment, retribution and redemption. But the road is long, especially when she begins to be haunted by the ghost of her victim. A stunning Scope western set to a Morricone-inspired score, this unique tale of female cinematic revenge takes no prisoners
