“BEAUTIFULLY ILLUMINATES INDIGENOUS PEOPLES’ RESISTANCE TO ENVIRONMENTAL DEVASTATION.”

- Robert Redford

In this four-part documentary series, native people share ecological wisdom and spiritual reverence. This series exposes threats to native peoples’ health, livelihood, and cultural survival in eight communities around the world. Rare verité scenes of tribal life allow indigenous people to tell their own stories – and to confront us with the ethical consequences of our culture of consumption.

DISC ONE:

PILGRIMS AND TOURISTS 2014 / 57 minutes

In the Altai Republic of Russia and in Northern California, indigenous shamans resist massive government projects that threaten nature and culture.

DISC TWO:

PROFIT AND LOSS 2014 / 57 minutes

From Papua New Guinea to the tar sands of Alberta, Canada, native people fight the loss of land, water, and health caused by mining and oil industries.

DISC THREE:

FIRE AND ICE 2014 / 57 minutes

From the Gamo Highlands of Ethiopia to the Andes of Peru, indigenous highland communities battle threats to their forests, farms, and faith.

DISC FOUR:

ISLANDS OF SANCTUARY 2014 / 57 minutes

Aboriginal Australians and Native Hawaiians reclaim land from the government and the military, and resist the erosion of culture and environment.

“Words that seem most appropriate in characterizing this documentary include awesome, beautiful, ugly, dramatic, revealing, disturbing, heroic, moving, and inspiring. A UNIQUE AND HISTORIC ACHIEVEMENT.”
