CHARLOTTE GAINSBOURG AND YVAN ATTAL SPARKLE
IN A CHARMING COMEDY OF MID-LIFE CRISIS AND CRACKED MARITAL BLISS

"A well-played and melancholic remarriage dramedy."

– JORDAN MINTZER, HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

"There's something intimate about the film...
as if Attal and Gainsbourg were taking aspects of their own relationship and using them to fuel and give dimension to the characters they're playing."

– MICK LASALLE, SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE

Henri is a middle-aged writer with fading inspiration. Feeling increasingly misunderstood by his family, he dreams of running away to start over again. Yet when he discovers a bad-mannered dog in his garden, he decides to adopt him, starting an unexpected friendship that inevitably upsets Henri's family and neighbors. The bittersweet and moving comedy about love standing the test of time stars iconic real-life couple Charlotte Gainsbourg and Yvan Attal.

BASED ON THE ACCLAIMED
JOHN FANTE NOVELLA
